June Is Dairy Month

LeRoy Nursery Schools Pre-K class celebrated June being Dairy month by a visit from Genesee County Dairy Princess Kayla Wormuth from Elba. LeRotary Notes

It was a pleasure to be hosted by the LeRoy Country Club as President Tracy rang the bell to begin the weekly meeting of the LeRoy Rotary Club. Guests today included Brittany Kramer-Shultz, a senior at LeRoy High School. Also in attendance were Don Eichenauer, CEO of Wyoming County Community Hospital and Marilyn Werner, Marketing Consultant at WCCH.

Announcements included a number of worthwhile community activities. Bob Bennett announced that the annual Golf Outing will be on June 11th at the LeRoy Country Club. The event, which is a Best Ball Tournament, will begin at 1:00 pm.

On July 26th the YWCA will be hosting their annual Wheels and Heels fund raiser. Proceeds will go to support the Y's Domestic Violence programs. Jim Ellison reminded Rotary members that the annual Installation Banquet is June 24th. Jim would appreciate your sign up by June 7th.

Christine Gephart announced that the Planter Project is going very well. There is still time for businesses to get on board and purchase a planter. Rotary members expressed an interest in purchasing polo shirts with the Rotary logo. Mary Young will take orders at the next meeting.

There were several members with missed meetings. Lynne Belluscio, Bob Bennett, Bob Carlson, Joe Gentino, David Grayson and Mary Young were all cited, and many had make-ups.

Fines were minimal this week with Tom McGinnis being fined for cell phone usage. He was asked to reiterate the Club cell phone policy. Anil Sawhney was fined for going to the Greens and coming in late to the meeting at LeRoy Country Club despite the many reminders from President Tracy.

Don Eichenauer, CEO of WCCH and Marilyn Werner, Marketing Consultant at WCCH presented a very informative overview of the Hospital. Don spoke about their recent 31 million dollar building project. There has been a beautiful transformation of the physical plant including the completion of their new ED in January 2014. Don spoke about the mission of WCCH to provide outstanding health care to the community. In recognition of our guest speaker's contribution to LeRoy Rotary Club, funds were given to provide polio immunizations to 25 children.

LBC Minutes

The May 5, 2014 meeting of the LeRoy Business Council was called to order at 5:31 pm by President Bob Bennett at LeRoy Family Moose Center. Randy Vink and Jim Nielsen made a motion to approve the minutes and Randy Vink and Jerry McCullough made a motion to approve the treasurer's report. Both carried.

Announcements: Moose Creek will be playing at the LeRoy Family Moose Center on Oatka Festival weekend. A donation will be made to the LeRoy pool from this event. The LCHS Budget Vote will be held on May 20th, along with a Chicken BBQ sponsored by the Junior class. You can visit the school website at www.leroycsd.org for more information on the Budget. The LeRoy Healthy Community/Healthy Youth Group will be doing a community wide project to decorate and plant pots to be placed at businesses and organizations in our community. Rent a Rotarian is on May 10th, Earth Day Clean-up will be June 5th, Graze to Raise will be 5/16 and LCCP Spring Celebration will be held June 7th in Trigon Park. A motion was made by Bill Kettle and Kim Pasquale to bring back LeRoy Night and it carried. Details will be forthcoming for "LeRoy Night" at the Muckdog stadium.

Kim Cox, Superintendent of Schools and Brian Foeller, Business Administrator, presented the 2014-15 school budget. Kim also noted all the District accomplishments for our school community and what a list there is. Christine Gephart from Healthy Communities/Healthy Youth spoke to us about the "Passport to our Community" where there will be a community Scavenger Hunt to identify the businesses and organizations that sponsored the plant project mentioned above. This will help promote business in our community. The monies raised will be used to promote more community service projects. This group also participates in projects with Rotary and the school community. Up to fifty students have participated in these projects.

Mark Masse, Sr. VP of Operations for GCEDC spoke to us about the STAMP project in Alabama, NY and how beneficial it will be in creating commercial and retail business along with the large amount of employment opportunities. Is LeRoy ready for a future STAMP project? Along with business and employment opportunities comes a destination for visitors and a huge marketing opportunity for our community.

Police Officer, Tim Hayes reminded us with the warm weather that we need to keep our car doors locked and to keep items out of view. Dave Paddock, Town Board member reported that they are continuing to work on the Budget and revising the Comprehension Plan. The Town is also purchasing a new truck to replace the 2004 they currently have. Bill Kettle, Village Board member reported that Jim DeLooze is opening an art gallery and coffee/sandwich shop that will be at "58 on Main" to open June 16th. The coffee/sandwich shop is being run by Sean Valdes, D & R Depot. He also stated that the Village Board is reviewing and strengthening the Code Enforcement.

The meeting adjourned at 6:27 pm with a motion from Randy Vink and Bill Kettle. Motion carried. The next meeting will be held on June 2nd at 5:30pm at the Masonic Community Center.

Love Bugs Chicks Have Arrived

For 21 days, the children at Love Bugs Preschool patiently waited for their chick eggs to begin hatching. They all took turns turning the eggs and when the time came, the Pre-K class got the brooder box all ready. They were all so excited when they saw the first chick begin to peck out of its egg! They were fascinated by how fast the rest of the chicks came! Here is the morning Nursery class meeting their new chicks!

Alzheimer's Association Offers Communications Class

It is not uncommon for caregivers to feel frustrated by their difficulty communicating with a loved one who has Alzheimer's disease or dementia. The Alzheimer's Association WNY Chapter is offering a class in LeRoy to discuss techniques and tips for "Improving Communication in Dementia Care".

LeRoy Village Green at 10 Munson Street in LeRoy is hosting the June 10, 2014 presentation from 1:00-2:00 p.m. The class is ideal for family caregivers who are trying to negotiate their caregiving journey as the needs of their loved ones change, and the disease progresses. They will leave the class with an understanding of both verbal and non-verbal communication skills, as well as concrete tools to help them engage with their loved one.

The class is open to the public, but registration is requested by calling the Chapter Office at 1.800.272.3900.

The Alzheimer's Association also offers numerous other programs to help both family and professional caregivers, and those with dementia. Classes are offered at various sites and times across Western New York, and include the basics about the disease, resources available in the community, and efforts on the research front aimed at ending the disease. Details are available by calling the Chapter at 1.800.272.3900 or by visiting www.alz.com/WNY.

Field Trip Fun For Sunshine

Sunshine Nursery School's Pre-K superheroes went on a field trip to Strong National Museum of Play. They put their math skills to work in the Berenstain Bears exhibit, shopped in a kid sized Wegmans Supermarket and saved the day in the American Comic Book Heroes exhibit. The children enjoyed a lunch together before riding the bus back to LeRoy. A super fun day was had by all!

Extra Points

by Lynne Belluscio

I cannot spell. I hated spelling bees when I was in school and in college, I remember more than once having a paper failed because I had more than five misspelled words. When I was student teaching - in a sixth grade in Clyde, New York, I admitted to the class that I had difficulty spelling. I made a deal with them. If they discovered a misspelled word that I had written on the board or in a ditto that I passed out, I would give them extra points on their next test. It put me on my toes and the kids were anxious to find a misspelled word. But now I need a fact checker.

Last week, Sam Zalacca stopped by to tell me that the article about the Ingham art student, Augusta Palmer, had a glaring error. I mentioned that in the background she had painted the steeple of St. Joseph's Church, when in fact, as Sam pointed out, St. Joe's wasn't built yet. "My goodness, Sam you are indeed right. You get an extra point on your next paper." That slipped by me.

Of course it was the steeple of St. Peter's Church. The church was dedicated in 1873. The steeple was struck by lightning and torn down in 1930. Just like a couple of weeks ago, I mentioned that the Triangle Tract marker was on South Street when in fact it was on Summit Street. I hate when I do that, but on the other hand, it's good to know there are some of you out there reading these articles and are checking up on me!

Many years ago, I put an "Errata" article in the Pennysaver, to correct some of the mistakes I had made. Heaven forbid, that in fifty years, someone reading these articles is going to cite them for fact. Since most of these articles are now posted on the Internet and are available in a digital format, I have been able to correct them, so I'll call Terry at the Pennysaver and ask her correct the Augusta Palmer article.

I'm not too sure what to do about the error in the LeRoy book that I wrote a few years back. On page 82 I included a photo of the Civil War Monument on Trigon Park and the caption read: "This photograph was taken on Trigon Park in front of the Soldier's Monument on dedication day,

May 30, 1906." As it was pointed out to me, in the background is the Union Free School that wasn't opened until 1911, so the photograph could not have been taken in 1906 - - unless it was Photoshopped. (So if you have a copy of the book, turn to page 82 and correct it to read: "This photograph was taken on Trigon Park sometime after 1911 in front of the Soldier's Monument, which had been dedicated on May 30, 1906.")

All those dates and names that we had to memorize are probably written in stone, but occasionally there's something that comes to light that puts a different twist on history. It's like giving Thomas Edison all the credit for the electric light bulb, when we really need to learn about Nikola Tesla. It's also the reason why I hesitate to say that Pearle Wait invented Jell-O. He didn't invent it. He trademarked the brand name. And we believe that it was his wife May that came up with the name.

At the time, there were several other gelatin concoctions being sold, under a variety of names. But it's not right to give Peter Cooper the credit for inventing Jell-O either. Peter Cooper did patent a gelatin-based product in 1945, but he didn't invent gelatin. There were recipes for flavored "jellies" way before Peter Cooper invented his concoction.

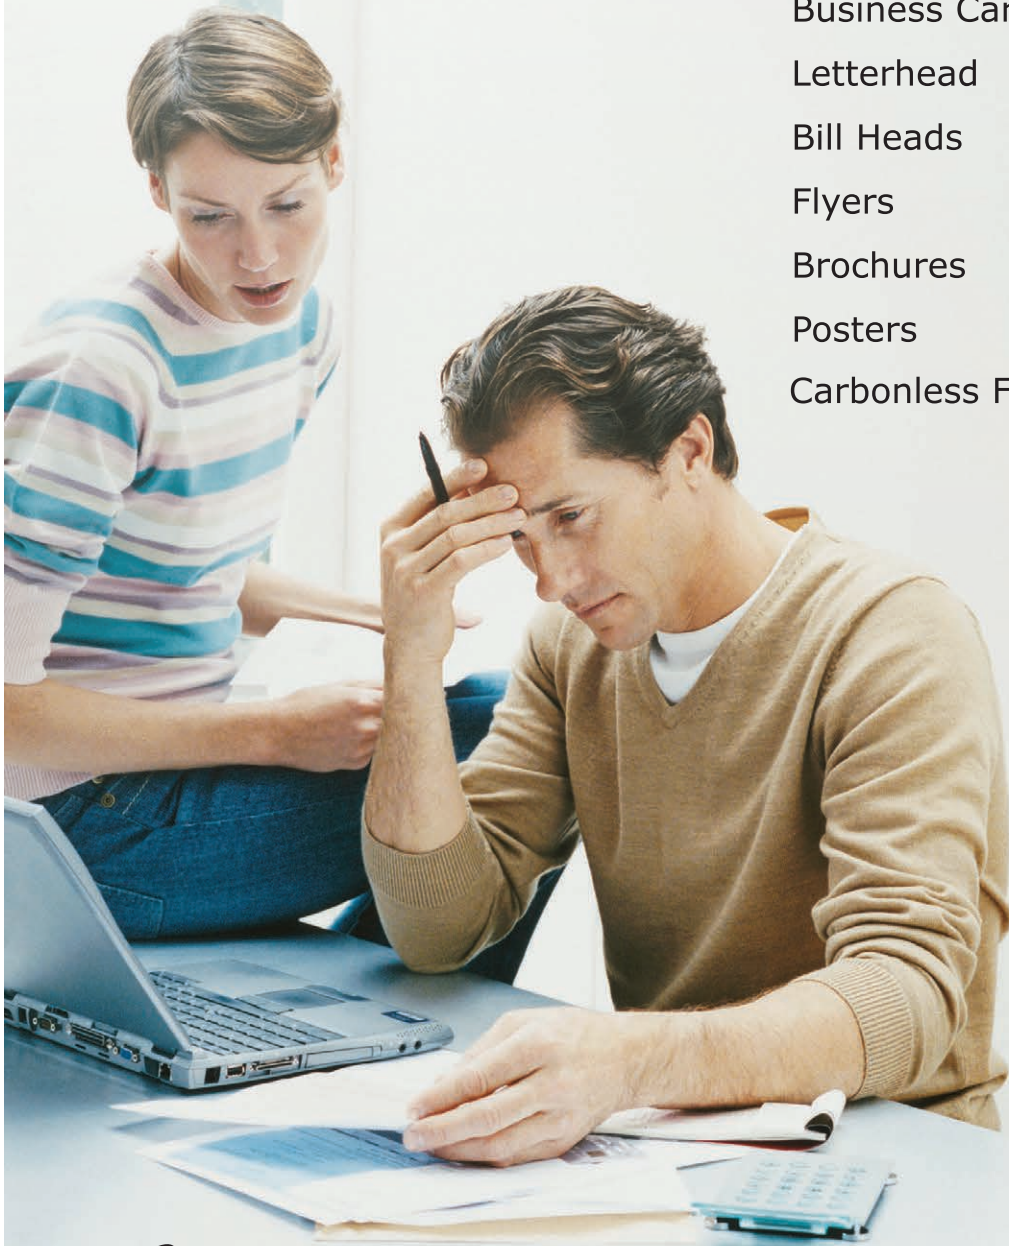

As a curious sideline - I was in Gowanda last week to give a talk about LeRoy's Barn Quilt Trail and discovered that from 1904 until 1984, the Peter Cooper Glue and Gelatin Factory was located in Gowanda adjacent to the Eastern Tanners Glue Factory. The tannery supplied the hides for the collagen in the glue. (Another Peter Cooper glue factory was located in Carrollville, Wisconsin but as far as I can tell, none of these factories supplied gelatin for Jell-O. All of the gelatin for Jell-O is produced at the Atlantic Gelatin Company in Woburn, Massachusetts.)

So for some people I will award extra points for fact finding, but I've decided to deduct points when people mispronounce LeRoy. As I have said many times, the Town and the Village are named for Herman LeRoy. He was a descendant of French Huguenots and the name is French and is pronounced luh roy, not lee roy. I suspect that the family rolls over in their graves every time the name is mispronounced. No one likes their name mispronounced.

I think the next fund raiser for the Historical Society will be a jar in the middle of every table at any meeting in town, at any sports event, and on any bar. The errant person who says lee roy will have to contribute a quarter. Maybe cheerleaders from the opposing teams who scream "Destroy LeRoy" will have to apply for a permit or better yet, have a point taken away from the score. Just a thought . . .

LeRoy Little League Highlights - Week 5

Indians 6 White Sox 1

The Indians and White Sox met for the rubber match of their series. In typical fashion of this series, the White Sox would score in the 1st inning when Kenny Saunders was hit in from a double by Ryan Friend. However, that would be all the Sox would get on this day. The Indians were shut down for the first 2 innings, but would break out in the 3rd scoring 3 runs after several hitters would draw walks. The Indians would score 3 more runs in the 6th inning on RBI hits from Aidan Robinson and Finn Shelby.

Cody Lytle and Tyler Slaven pitched very well for the Indians combining for 11 strike outs and allowing 1 run. Colm Roster, Tommy Saunders, and Kenny Saunders would each toe the rubber for the White Sox. They would combine to strike out 10 batters.

Hitting for the Indians were Maxin McKenzie with 2 hits (double, triple), Cody Lytle, Brady Fix, Finn Shelby and Aidan Robinson. Hitting for the White Sox were Kenny Saunders with 3 hits, Ryan Friend (double), and Cole Heaney.

Red Sox 6 Yankees 0

The Red Sox were able to pick up their 3rd win of the season by winning a close, hard fought game vs The Yankees. The Red Sox scored 4 runs in the decisive 5th inning to pull away.

Nick Engel and Alex Panepento combined for the shutout. Engel went the first 3 innings. He allowed 2 hits while striking out 5. Panepento went the last 3 allowing only 1 hit and striking out 2. The Yankees got an equally impressive outing from Shawn Morabito. He went 4 innings allowing 3 hits and striking out 5. Andrew Tygart pitched the final 2 innings and struck out 6.

The Red Sox bats were led by Brock Flint and John Panepento. Both had 2 hits on the day. Jake Hill, Alex Panepento had the other hits for the Red Sox.

The Yankees got hits out of Morabito, Richie Carpino and Bryce Lathan.

Tigers 6 Twins 0

Well for the fans who came to settle in for a long night of baseball, they would not be happy, as masterful pitching by Andrew Loftus of the Twins and Reece Tresco of the Tigers ended the game in under an hour. The first 5 innings were dominated by pitching and defense. The Tigers were able to get 2 singles by Giovanni Caccamise and Reece Tresco in the first inning, only to be sent packing by Zach Baker who made a super catch in CF and then doubled off a runner at second. The Twins threatened in the 4th inning when Chase Bordonaro led off with a double, but was stranded at 3rd as Tresco struck out the side. Loftus then singled in the 5th, but was stranded at 3rd as the Tiger defense held. The Tigers threatened in the 4th and 5th innings, but a stellar Twins defense kept the score 0-0 going into the 6th. This is where the Tiger bats came alive. A single by Tresco started it and was followed by doubles from Zach Vanderhoof and Joey Brennan. Tyler Williams was walked and James Blake doubled home 2. Luke Caccamise finished the hitting with a single scoring his brother, putting the Tigers up 6-0. The Twins would add a hit in the bottom of the 6th, but it was not enough as the Tigers won 6-0.

Reece Tresco went the distance giving up 3 hits, walking 0 and striking out 11. Giovanni Caccamise had 2 singles, RBI, and scored a run. Reece Tresco had 3 singles and scored once, while Luke Caccamise had a single and RBI. Joey Brennan and Zach Vanderhoof each had a double, RBI and run scored and Tyler Williams added a run scored. James Blake had a double and 2 RBI's. Austin Saeva and Connor McGee each added a single. Connor's single was his first Little League hit!!! Way to go!!!

Andrew Loftus went 5 2/3 innings for the Twins scattering 10 hits, walking 1 and striking out 4. Collin McCulley came in for the final out. Chase Bordonaro led the way at the plate going 2 for 3 with a single and a double. Andrew Loftus had the other hit for the Twins adding a single.

Indians 10 Red Sox 2

The Indians and Red Sox square off for a Home and Home series this past Saturday. The Indians' bats would come alive in this game with Cody Lytle and Aidan Robinson each going 4 for 4 at the plate and combining for 3 RBIs. Maxin McKenzie would add 3 hits and Brady Fix would collect 2 hits.

Finn Shelby and Tyler Strollo would obtain hits of their own. Each of these players would collect an RBI for the day. Jacob Williams would add an RBI of his own.

Maxin McKenzie was efficient on the mound for the Indians going 5 innings on 50 pitches allowing no runs, striking out 6, and scattering 3 hits.

Maveric McKenzie would come in the 6th inning to close out the game in his first Little League appearance.

Alex Panapento, Jim Burns, and John Panapento would each pitch for the Red Sox in Game 1. Hitting for the Red Sox were Alex Panapento and Nick Engel, each with 2 hits. Jake Hill and Alex Panapento would score for the Sox.

Indians 15 Red Sox 5

Game 2 of this Home and Home series would see similar results as Game 1, although the game would be back and forth early on. Maxin McKenzie would lead off with a single and would score from 2nd on a sacrifice fly from Cody Lytle. The Sox would come right back in the bottom of the 1st with 2 runs scored by Jake Hill and Brock Flint. The Indians would get 2 runs in the 3rd inning from Maxin McKenzie and Tyler Slaven to retake the lead.

But once again, the Sox would score 2 in the bottom of the 3rd as well.

Cam Greene and Alex Panapento would single and would score on a double hit by John Panapento. The Indians would enter the 4th inning down 3-4 when Cody Lytle would come to the plate with one on. Cody would blast a pitch over the center field fence to give the Indians a 5-4 lead. The Indians would score 3 more that inning and wouldn't look back from there.

Cody Lytle and Tyler Slaven would pitch for the Indians combining for 9 strike outs and scattering 6 hits. Nick Engel, Brock Flint, and Jackson Locke would each pitch for the Red Sox.

Hitting for the Indians were Maxin McKenzie with 3 hits (double), Cody Lytle with 2 hits (home run), Tyler Slaven with 3 hits (triple), Brady Fix with 3 hits (double) and Aidan Robinson. Hitting for the Red Sox were Jake Hill with 2 hits, Cam Greene, Alex Panapento, Nick Engel, and John Panapento.

In the bottom of the inning the Yankees got on the board as Tygart blasted a home run and Kyler LaCarte scored after doubling to tie the game 2-2. The Tigers used 4 straight hits in the 2nd to score 2 more and go up 4-2. The Yankees scored 1 in the 3rd inning making it 4-3, but in the 4th the Tigers used hits and a good eye as they were able to score 9 runs to go up 13-3. The Tigers added 1 run in the 6th and got the win 14-3.
