LeRoy Student To Perform At Conference All-State

Sophie Farnholz, a French horn player at LeRoy Central School, has been selected to perform in the All-State Symphonic Band for next weekend's Conference All-State convention in Rochester. Only the best 11th and 12th grade students are selected to perform in these ensembles, and Sophie is the first instrumentalist from LeRoy Central to be selected for this honor since 1998. Sophie is currently a junior.

To be admitted to an All-State ensemble, students must prepare a level 6 NYSSMA solo with an accompanist and perform it in front a judge at a NYSSMA solo festival. Typically, only level six solos that score a 100 are admitted to an All-State ensemble, and even then, seniors are given priority over juniors.

Sophie is extremely active and high achieving student. Not only is she a member of the Senior High band and chorus, but Sophie also takes the vocal jazz and music history courses offered by the LeRoy music department, participates in the Marching Band, Jr/Sr High musical, the Jazz Band, the Knightengales (a vocal swing ensemble,) is a member of the National Honor Society, the Interact Club and plays on the school's tennis team. Outside of school, Sophie sits principal chair in the Hochstein Youth Symphony Orchestra's horn section and was recently awarded the Gretchen Snedeker Endowed Scholarship which is given to students who display commitment, dedication, work ethic and musicianship. Sophie takes private lessons on French horn and piano and has attended the Nazareth Summer Piano Camp for three years now. In college, Sophie is looking to earn a degree in music therapy.

The concert is this coming Sunday, December 6th at 10:00am in the Kodak Hall at Eastman Theatre.

Youth Hockey - Squirt A

On Sunday, November 15, 2015, The Falletti Motors Batavia Ramparts Squirt A team coached by LeRoy resident, Joe Eschberger, lost a fast-paced, goal-filled game at Paul Lewis Ice Arena in Rochester vs the Perinton Blades. For almost two periods, the teams traded goals as the score was tied 5-5 until the Blades broke it open with five unanswered goals in the final three minutes of the second period. The teams each scored a goal in the final period and the Ramparts lost the game 11-6. Goal scorers for the Ramparts included Will Eschberger & Tyler McClurg of LeRoy along with, Anna Stevens, Matt Rogers, Brennan Pedersen, and Tyler Kidder. Robert McCarthy was busy in the net as he faces 31 shots in this exciting game.

On Saturday, November 21,

2015, The Falletti Motors Batavia Ramparts Squirt A team visited the Monroe County Youth Hockey Eagles at Scottsville Ice Arena. The Ramparts started the scoring midway through the first period as defenseman Brennan Pedersen rifled a shot from the point that found the net. The Ramparts defensemen Will Eschberger and Tyler McClurg of LeRoy helped hold the lead while the offense continued to apply pressure until late in the second period when the Eagles were able to get an equalizing goal. The Eagles broke the tie late in the third and went on to defeat the Ramparts 3-1. While the ramparts lost this game, they were in control of the puck for much of the play, but met a stingy goaltender, as they outshot the Eagles 24-14 in the game.

LeRotary Notes

As President Tony was out of town, Past President Martha Bailey opened the meeting with the Pledge, Prayer, and the Four Way Test. Our guests introduced themselves as Le Roy Central School Seniors Reed Kacur and Allison Uberty. Reed will be attending college in Ohio to become a diesel mechanic. Allison is planning on college in NYC and will be a Pre-Med major.

Buckets of Hope are packed and ready for shipment to flood victims in South Carolina. As a reminder, our December 2nd meeting will be held at the Le Roy Country Club and our December 9th meeting (and Cookie Auction) will be held at the American Legion. The Le Roy Business Council is selling tickets to help fund the costs for the First Night fireworks. Randy Vink informed us that Rotary Night at the Batavia Downs was a success with 83 people attending.

Scott McCumisky let us know that on December 11th, Rotary will be Ringing the Bell at Tops and all are welcome to help out. Mary Margaret Ripley stated that 75 people attended the Pancake Breakfast and thanked all that helped out. Bob Bennett, Tom McGinnis, Anil Sawhney, and Mary Young were all called upon for missed meetings.

Past President Martha had an extensive fining session that included Lauren Humphrey, Ben Deragon, Bruce Baker, Mary Young, Randy Vink, and Tracy Ford.

The Program today was presented by Rotarian Lauren Humphrey on behalf of LCCP. LCCP is an ecumenical organization in Le Roy that has 8 programs under its umbrella. They include the After School Program, Grace's Kitchen, the Backpack Club, Ladie's Prayer, Caregivers Connection, Mommy and Me Playgroup, Summer Day Camp and Teen Night. The After School Program is the largest program, and while free to participants, is the most costly to the organization, costing approximately $100/month/child. Recently, LCCP lost a grant due to a change in the foundation's funding requirements. This foundation is now focusing solely on the City of Rochester rather than the, "Greater Rochester Area." To make up for lost funding, a $75,000 capital campaign, "Lift LCCP" will run through March of 2016. To donate you can visit www.leroychristiancommunityproject.org, see any staff or board member, or send to 7 East Main Street, Le Roy, NY 14482.

Thanksgiving and Turkey and Football

by Lynne Belluscio

I often say that history is not written in stone. That certainly is true about the first Thanksgiving. In fact, historians cannot agree on the story of the first Thanksgiving. Some claim it can be traced to Texas, several years before the Pilgrims landed in Plymouth. There is also a story that English settlers in Virginia celebrated Thanksgiving in 1619. But one thing for sure, turkey wasn't on the menu – neither was mashed potatoes or pumpkin pie. But as a historian, I am not about to change my Thanksgiving menu because it's not historically accurate.

For my family, it was always turkey for Thanksgiving and Christmas, filled with my grandmother's recipe for stuffing. I have always baked the turkey in heavy-duty aluminum foil at 450 degrees and at the last minute, take off the foil so it would brown.

There is a difference between baking and roasting turkey. Historically, turkey was roasted on a spit in front of the fire, sometimes in a tin reflector, or tin kitchen. The brick oven could not hold the heat long enough to bake a turkey. I think that's why boiled turkey was popular at that time in the early 1800s.

The 1833 Cook's Own Book suggests that a turkey should be boiled in a floured bag so it can be served white, with a sauce. (I have never boiled a turkey, and probably never will). When the cast iron stove replaced the open hearth, women were faced with small ovens that could not hold a turkey, and in truth, they preferred meat roasted in front of the fire. So the early stoves had two little doors in front of the firebox, with a wide shelf where the tin kitchen could be placed. The little doors were opened, and the turkey was roasted in front of the fire.

I really wonder how popular turkey was in the 19th century. Lydia Child in The Frugal Housewife 1833 mentions turkey, but only to say that a "good sized turkey should be roasted two hours and a half or three hours; very slowly at first." Charlotte LeRoy's receipt book doesn't have a recipe for turkey. The Cooks Own Book suggests that

"Many a Christmas dinner has been spoiled by the turkey having been hung up in a larder and becoming thoroughly frozen; Jack Frost has ruined the reputation of many a turkey roaster."

In 1976, when we built our cooking fireplace and brick oven, I decided to cook Thanksgiving dinner in the fireplace. Trying to be prudent, I decided to roast a small turkey, about 13 pounds, but with no stuffing, since I was concerned that the internal temperature would not reach a proper degree. But the turkey took much longer than I planned, and I think we had it for dessert!

In 1910, a turkey story was reported in the LeRoy Gazette. It seems that Alexander Sutherland bought a live turkey for the traditional Thanksgiving dinner and brought it home and put it in a bag in the woodshed. He would "dispatch" it later. His wife had to pluck the feathers and get it ready for the oven, but the turkey had other ideas. Sutherland heard a loud crash in the dining room and when he went to see what had happened he discovered that his Thanksgiving dinner had escaped from the woodshed and had made its way into the dining room. The frightened bird crashed into the china cupboard and broke the family set of china and did a pretty good number on the china cupboard in the process. The Gazette article doesn't mention what happened to the errant gobbler, but one can only suspect that it eventually made it to the dinner table -- on the everyday dishes.

Another story reported in the 1910 Gazette, included accounts of three football games that were played on Thanksgiving in LeRoy. The first game of the day was played at 10 am at the Summit Street field. The All-Le-Roy Eleven played the self-proclaimed amateur champions of Rochester, the Dreadnaughts. Don McVean and Fenton Taylor scored touchdowns. The final score was 12 to 4.

The 1:30 game was between the LeRoy Stars and the East Ends from Buffalo. LeRoy lost the game 18 to 0. The Buffalo team was a lot larger than the boys from LeRoy. At 3 pm the High School played against Greigsville. It was a grudge match, since LeRoy had defeated Greigsville the Saturday before. This game was the final game of the season and LeRoy won 41 to 0. There were seven touchdowns. Three by Glidden, two each by Bundy and Kavanaugh. Glidden and Selden each kicked 3 goals. It certainly appears that Thanksgiving and football have been a part of LeRoy's history - way before there was television and the NFL.
